City Vision

Clive Miller MBA, BA(Hons) DipTP is an independent planning, development and economic regeneration consultant who is retained by the City and District Council to advise on and support a number of projects, including the City Vision. Clive will make a presentation on the St Albans City Vision project which is currently underway. This will include a summary of the research, analysis and consultation findings revealed so far and the emerging framework and direction of travel for the Vision. He will also explain about the forthcoming opportunities for consultation as the work moves into the detailed master planning stage of the project.
